Foreword

This is the Lenape . . .

This is the smell of new plaster.

This is a guidance assembly, Our Two Cents Worth, and cheese fondue.

This is fourth period Friday, "Walk please." and

This is enthusiasm and apathy.

This is four years of our lives and the people who made them. We all have friends; some of us form groups.
We look at others, we talk about others, and we pass judgment. We also wonder what others think of us, what others see when we cheer at a basketball game, as we walk down the hall, or as we sit at our tables in the lunch room.

There are some pictures and there are some ideas that we have gathered . . . To see ourselves as others see us.

Griswold, Watchung's highly respected coach, feels the Warrior's role as "spoilers" could be an advantage. There's a keen rivalry between the schools and the word is out that Watchung wants to win this one badly.

October 23, 1961

Dave Spisso threw three touchdown passes yesterday to lead Watchung Hills High to a 19-6 victory over Piscataway. Spisso threw scoring aeriels to Doug Langmack, one for 70 yards, and Ed Satterlee in the fourth quarter to snap a 6-6 tie.

October 30, 1961

The chances of a winning season for the Watchung Hills High School football team were dealt a near fatal blow as the Warriors dropped their fourth game in six decisions, bowing to Chatham, 14-0, here Saturday.

November 18, 1961

Ken Yates, who with Langmack leads the Warriors with three touch downs, is the teams ground-gaining pace setter. He is a hard, deceptive runner who has blossomed into a Grade A back in recent encounters.

October 2, 1961

Watchung Hills Regional came from behind to defeat Ridge High, 12-6, Saturday for its first win of the Grid campaign. Warrior full back, Ed Satterlee, plunged over from the two yard stripe with one minute remaining in the period to knot the score at 6-6. Two plays earlier, Satterlee turned in the longest run of the afternoon, a 45 punt return to the Red Devils 15. Dave Spisso hit Bruce Mangione with an aerial to move the ball to the 2.

November 18, 1961

An air-minded Watchung Hills High football team spoiled Bound Brook's chances of a possible winning season here Saturday when it rallied to defeat the Crusaders, 20-12, before 1,000 fans at LaMonte Field.

November 18, 1961

Guglielmo, 175 pounds, made his first backfield appearance an impressive one at Bound Brook. He hits the line hard and is a valuable performer because of his sharp blocking ability.

Watchung Hills Jolts Somerville

Warrior Five Tops Pioneers; Falcons, Crusaders Victors

By TOM EVANS

Lightly regarded Watchung Hills Regional's basketball team employed a deep, deep freeze offense to score the district's biggest upset of the season, a 42-35 conquest of Somerville in a Somerset County League battle last night at Warren Township. In other county loop games, Bound Brook turned back Manville, 83-70, at Bound Brook, and Bridgewater-Raritan defeated Bernards, 54-47, at Bridgewater.

Watchung, in pulling off the shocker, handed the Pioneers their first loss after nine straight wins in league play. Watchung upped its record to 7-10, while winning its sixth county contest against four losses. It was the second defeat in 18 outings for Somerville. The Pioneers need one more county victory to win their third county title in as many years.

In addition to the duel being waged between Bound Brook and Somerville for the county team championship, a tight race for scoring honors is in the making between Somerville's Roger Shutack and Al Walsh of Bound Brook. Walsh gained 23 points on the Pioneer sharpshooter last night, pouring in 37 points against Manville. Shutack has scored 390 points. Walsh has 376.

RON O'BRIEN
Warrior Standout

Coach Ray Kovonuk of Watchung Hills, in an effort to draw out Somerville's tight zone defense, ordered the Warriors into a deep freeze after Sam Blackshear of Somerville had canned a jump shot in the opening minute of play.

The freeze failed to draw the Pioneers out, and with 1:48 remaining in the first period, a technical foul was levied against the Warriors for not attempting a play within 30 seconds. Shutack made the foul and Ed Fuller and Ron Tindall added layups to give the losers a 7-1 lead at the end of the period.

The Warriors continued the cold spell into the second period but opened enough to outscore the visitors, 15-12 to draw within three points at halftime. In the third period the victors used a semi-freeze and drives up the middle to gain a 28-25 third period advantage.

Ron O'Brien led Watchung in the fourth period, scoring six points on driving layups after the Pioneers were forced to go man-to-man in an attempt to steal the ball. Shutack rifled in eight points in the last quarter for Somerville.

At Bound Brook, Walsh led the Crusaders to their 12th win against five setbacks. The Crusaders upped their county standing to 8-3. Manville, losing its 10th game in 20 outings, slipped to 4-5 in the league.

The 37-point performance by Walsh fell three points short of the Bound Brook High scoring record of 40, set by Marty Perdue against Middlesex earlier in the season.

The Crusaders piled up a 10-point lead in the first half and held the lead until the Mustangs moved to within seven points late in the final quarter. Gus Baranowski led Manville with 24 points.

Bridgewater-Raritan hit for three field goals and converted seven of 10 foul shots to gain a 13-5 lead in the first period, then went on to its seventh victory in 15 contests. Bernards has also played 15 games and has now lost 12.

By winning, the Golden Falcons were able to maintain a slim lead over Watchung Hills in the battle for third spot in the county. The Falcons hold a 5-3 county mark, while Watchung trails by percentage points with a 6-4 record. The Mountaineers are winless in 10 county games.
